ITALY WILL PAY U.S. ITS WAR DEBT

$1,631,000,000 to be Liquidated Within Stated Time

ASK SAME TREATMENT

Kingdom First to Definitely Propose Settlement With no Favors Asked —To Remove Ban on Exports

Washington, March 10.—Italy is preparing, through rehabilitating her internal financial condition, setting in motion again the machinery of commercial relations and resuming the production of staples of commerce utilized in her foreign trade to discharge her debt to the United States, Roland Ricci, the new Italian Ambassador, said yesterday in answer to an inquiry. The debt, according to the last annual report of former Secretary of the Treasury Houston, amounts to $1,631,000,000.

The Ambassador in a statement, said:

"The following is my precise opinion in regard to the American loans to Italy and the payment of said loans by Italy:

"Italy must, through a revision of the accounts, ascertain the exact amount of her debt and then ask for a convenient period of time within which to pay it. This condition is essential, because otherwise it would be impossible for Italy to rehabilitate her financial condition which is in its turn the only way whereby Italy can pay her debt.

"Italy would naturally ask the 'preferred nations' treatment, O. E. Italy would ask that in case of a cancellation or partial remittance of debt by any other nation the same treatment be granted her. Like the United States, Italy entered the war without being forced to do so by any aggression and while the nations that had been attacked were in very difficult straits, Italy got nothing out of the war . . . not her natural boundaries, and such boundaries Italy conquered with her own military effort which culminated with the victory of Vittorio Veneto.

"Italy has therefore a political attitude and a public sentiment which agree completely with the political attitude and public sentiment of the United States. This, I think and hope, will facilitate my work here. I accepted the charge of doing this work with this understanding of the situation."

The Ambassador expressed confidence in the success of the efforts that are now being made to bring about a complete resumption of the formerly large and important trade relations between Italy and the United States, particularly the Italian export trade with this country, which would be a large factor in meeting the financial obligations of Italy to America. He indicated however that it would not be possible at first to apply the proceeds of the sale of Italian products imported into America directly towards the reduction of the debt to this country.

It is essential, the Ambassador pointed out, that the internal finances of Italy should be set on a firm foundation before the country could undertake to settle its external obligations. Several sources of revenue in former years, he explained, had been lost, such as the large sums derived from the tourists, the heavy remittances that had come from Italians in the United States and the revenue from the sales in this country of such Italian staples as fruits, olives, oil and wines.

As a war measure, the Ambassador continued, his government stopped the exportation of oils, fruits and wheat products, such a macaroni, but, he added, that this prohibition was now to be removed so that these staples might again figure as important factors in trade. Altogether, he said, the prospects were bright for a restoration of commercial relations on the former basis that would eventually make possible a financial settlement of the existing heavy indebtedness.

Although no intimation has come from the Treasury of a disposition to discuss the questions involved in a readjustment of the indebtedness of the Allied Powers to the United States, it is understood to be regarded by the heads of the foreign embassies here as a subject that must very soon be taken under consideration in order that the House Ways and Means Committee and the Senate Committee on Finance may be in possession of facts regarding the probable receipts of interest on account of these foreign debts as a basis for their own calculations of the amount of revenue that must be raised.

Columbia Fire Co. Gives Banquet

Four Out of Six Living Charter Members Respond To Their Names At Celebration

COMPANY FIFTY YEARS OLD

Affair Attended by 200 Guests—Norman Roberts, President, Toastmaster—Congressman R. Walton Moore, E. S. Leadbeater, Fire Chief Ogden, H. Noel Garner, Capt. G. H. Evans, Councilmen H. R. Burke and C. W. Fletcher Respond to Toasts—Invocation by Rev. G. J. Hill and Benediction by Rev. Louis Smet.

In honor of its fiftieth anniversary a banquet was given last night by the Columbia Engine and Motor, Co., No. 4, in the Westminster Building which was attended by nearly 200 guests, including city officials, firemen from the various fire companies of the city, special guests from the business organizations and a number of veteran firemen.

Six out of the original membership of the company, organized fifty years ago last night, are today living, and four of them sat down to the banquet board and arose when their names were called by President Norman Roberts, toastmaster, and were cheered to the echo. It was a great sight as the veterans stood and gave a thrill to the young members as they saw the four men who served the old Columbia from the day of its inception. In their order those present who were charter members were: George S. French, William D. Zimmerman, George Uhler and J. H. Mansfield. The absentees were Edmund Burke and R. Lee Fleming.

The guests for the banquet assembled at the Columbia Engine House and marched in a body to the Westminster building. The big banquet hall was prettily decorated and on the stage were large pictures of the late William A. Smoot, for many years president of the Columbia Company and the late Henry Posey, for about forty years driver of the Columbia engine and in the center was a mammouth gilded horseshoe. There were also several of the company's pictures suspended on the stage. At the south end of the hall was the company's service flag containing twenty-two stars, including one gold one for Samuel Haynes who made the supreme sacrifice during the world war. Officers of several of the companies occupied seats on the stage.

The tables were prettily decorated with red candles and the sidewalls with red candles and the sidewals with flags, the color scheme through out being red. The tables were arranged in E shape and presented an unusually attractive appearance.

Silver fire trumpet horns also were scattered at the various tables.

Looking around the tables one could see many veteran firemen of the city who had come to participate in the fiftieth anniversary among whom in addition to the four mentioned above were Loudoun Campbell, for many years engineer of the old Columbia Company and Stephen Taylor, veteran driver of that company; James B. Hughes, John Hughes, Charles Herbert, Captain Fountain Beattie, Dr. Samuel H. Lunt, Charles Duffey, John McCuen, and a host of others.

The gathering was rapped to order by President Roberts and blessing was invoked by Rev. George J. Hill, pastor of the Methodist Protestant Church, and at 10:45 o'clock benediction was pronounced by Rev. Louis Smet, rector of St. Mary's Catholic Church, which brought the affair to a close.

During the evening selections were given by the Citizens' Band both at the engine house and at the hall and music also was furnished by Rogers' orchestra.

At 9:15 o'clock President Roberts rapped the assemblage to order and announced that he had received letters of regret at their inability to attend from Former President Woodrow Wilson, Governor Westmoreland Davis, E. M. Gilpin, Chief Watson of the Washington Fire Department and Chief Lloyd of the Camp Humphreys Fire Department.

Mr. Roberts in a brief address explained the purpose of the gathering saying the company was organized 50 years ago to protect limb, life and property and that the men were always ready to respond to the call.

During the evening speeches were made in their order by the following: E. S. Leadbeater, treasurer of the company; Fire Chief Kenneth W. Ogden, Corporation Attorney H. Noel Garner, Representative R. Walton Moore, Capt. George H. Evans, business manager of the chamber of commerce; H. R. Burke, president of common council; Councilman Claude W. Fletcher, vice president of the Reliance Company.

The banquet was served by a committee of ladies of the Second Presbyterian Church assisted by mothers, wives, sisters and sweethearts of the members of the Columbia Company and they were highly praised for the successful manner in which the banquet was handled.

An interesting history of the Columbia Company since its organization was given by E. S. Leadbeater, who said most of the data was compiled from the Fireman's Standard This was practically the same as published in the Gazette March 4. Mr. Leadbeater then delved into the record of the company in later years continuing to the present time, paying a tribute to the former employees of the company, including the engineers, drivers and fire chiefs calling them by name. Their names were lustily applauded by the firemen. The speaker told of the bond existing betwen the late William A. Smoot, for many years president and the late Henry Posey, for 40 years driver of the Columbia engine. The speaker also scored the self appointed critics of the fire department. Concluding his remarks Mr. Leadbeater said: "Be true to the record of the past and make it your ideal for the future."

Fire Chief Kenneth W. Ogden spoke on "The Progress of the Alexandria Fire Department. He traced from the very beginning fighting fires with utensils and then equipment and finally apparatus at the present time For seventeen and one-half years the speaker said he has been actively identified with the fire department and had made every effort to maintain a high standard of efficiency. In proportion to its size the local department he said is equal to any in the United States.

Over 125 men are standing ready at any time to respond to the call for help. A number of the firemen he declared have made the supreme sacrifice through illness contracted while attending fires. The speaker said he felt confident he could modestly claim a small part of the progress achieved, adding that to the men go 99 per cent of the achievements.

Chief Ogden thanked the city for the splendid apparatus which they have purchased for the firemen.

In conclusion he said he recently received $410 for the department which had been distributed today among the 3 fire companies. Of this amount he said $200 came from residents of Arlington county; $75 from residents of the town of Potomac, $100 from the Old Dominion Glass Company, $25 from W. H. Luckett and $10 from John W. Herndon, and afterward Mr. Leadbeater announced an additional contribution of $5 from Irvin Diener, of D. Bendheim's. Each company Chief Ogden said received $166.66.

Corporation Attorney H. Noel Garner praised the Columbia Company for the entertainment provided and said Alexandria is proud of the record and achievements of the fire department. The men he declared are brave and do not stop for danger It is a fact he said that Alexandria is possessed of a fire department that is second to none in the United States. It has he said been aided by the city council in the procuring of new apparatus. This money the speaker said had not been idly squandered. The speaker told of the low insurance rates here, lower he said than any other city in the state due entirely to the modern fire apparatus and the splendid fire department of the city.

Representative R. Walton Moore recited the names of some of the founders of the company and said it made him feel like one who is living among a field of ghosts. He said he knew most of the men including the company's first president, William Kilgore.

Mr. Moore said the fact that the company is celebrating its fiftieth anniversary is a pretty fine evidence that the company has done what it should do and that the city has done its part by the company. The speaker said that were he a painter or a writer and seeking to describe the firemen the typical figure would be a man of vigorous body without any development along any particular line and courageous and intelligent also. "What I mean by intelligent is that which expressed strong common sense; a man of careful training in order to be prepared for his duty, and willing to submission to his superior."

Continuing Mr. Moore said: "In this confused world today nothing is more essential than the recognition of authority; also a man of courage with nerve to perform his duty with steadiness." This would be the greatest idea of the typical firemen he said. The typical firemen said the speaker is one that gives rather than demands service. It is the spirit of self sacrifice.

Referring to the service flag on the other end of the wall, facing him, Mr. Moore declared the typical fire-

ALLIES EXTEND DEEPER IN GERMANY

Belgians Occupy Hamborn and Coaling Port of the Thyssen Works

SAY IT IS A NEW WAR

Supreme Council Decides to Enforce Penalties Until Berlin Yields—Looking to Workers

Berlin, March 10.—The Belgians have occupied Hamborn, to the north of Duisburg, and the coaling port of the Thyssen Works. The occupation was without incident.

Crowds waiting at the station last night greeted Dr. Simons, head of the German delegation to the reparations conference, with an ovation on his arrival from London. The crowds sang "Deutschland Ueber Alles" and other patriotic airs.

There was a similar demonstration at Elberfield, where the train stopped in the morning, flowers being presented to the returning delegates

Berlin, March 10.—With the recall of the German Ambassadors to France and England and the Minister to Belgium, Germany interrupts diplomatic relations with the Entente again and one element—the Conservative extremists—actually considers that the nation is in a state of war. Vorwaerts charges that the Entente has begun a new war and thus indisputably violated the Versailles treaty.

Dr. Walter Simons, the German Foreign Minister, is not expected to resign on his return from London. It was expected that he would resign when his counter proposals failed, but now the people of all parties are solidly united in supporting the Government following the Entente's occupation of the Ruhr coal ports.

The German is working off his passions against the Entente by talk. Business men consider that the Entente's invasion will result in nothing, and they believe the occupation will end with the resumption of peaceful negotiations within a week.

Just as at the time of the Kapp revolution, when Germany asked organized labor to rescue the country, so today, while the political situation is chaotic, the people are awaiting the workers' actions. A general strike is being discussed and also strikes in the coal and iron industries in the Ruhr region. In such an event, it is claimed that the Entente authorities in the district could not force the German miners to dig the coal which is demanded in the Treaty of Versailles, and as a result the Entente's industry would be seriously affected.

Incidentally the idea that Germany is going Bolshevist has been revived by the extreme militarists, who have been preaching armed resistance against the occupation, but, realizing that the nation is not able to muster sufficient strength to make such an attempt, they favor using the threat to turn Bolshevist as a weapon against the Entente.

TO-DAY'S THOUGHT. The light of love, the purity of grace, the mind, the music breathing from her face, the heart whose softness harmonized the whole,—and oh, that eye was in itself a soul!

Byron

Public Library For Alexandria.

We do not think any one will dispute the advantages that a public library would secure to Alexandria. We doubt not that thousands of our citizens, young and old, are now deprived of the opportunity of self-culture that a library free to all would furnish. It is one of the signs of a city's healthy progress and a living evidence of higher standards of life.

It is a crying need of Alexandria that we should give our young all the facilities for self-improvement. That they should have the added means afforded by thousands of well-chosen books free to them as the air.

The Gazette will take this matter up again—and yet again—if needed. We urge the public-spirited women of the city to look into the matter and see what can be done.

There is money awaiting somewhere this very minute to be given in so sacred a cause. To find it ought not be so difficult a venture either.

If perchance, this little editorial should reach the eye of some one who has made a will, or who is about to make one, let us suggest that his money can serve no nobler purpose than that of providing books for future generations. Public libraries are the poor man's universities. Public libraries stimulate the thirst for more knowledge. Public libraries are an adjunct to public morality. Public libraries save many a human soul from shipwreck on the rocks of ignorance and dissipation.

We see numbers of young men congregated on our street-corners, at all hours apparently idle and with no place to go. A reading room, a chess and checker or domino room in an atmosphere purified by the volumes in which all human knowledge is stored, which beckon and invite the mind—how far better for our youth!

Think about it, gentle readers! Perhaps if enough of us think about it—the vision of a fine public library in our midst may some fine day become a waking reality.

Clean Film Favorite.

Quite in line with the suggestions embodied in our recent editorial on the Movies, we notice that the Methodist Church has just issued a "white list," similar in its purposes to that maintained by the Catholic Church, designed to serve as a guide to the public in its choice of films that may be safely attended by children. The first of these lists, just mentioned, apparently shows a preference for the photo plays of Charles Ray. This movie star has been exhibited frequently in Alexandria and is an undoubted favorite. His films are clean, interesting, and worthy of a large patronage. This interest by the churches is a move in the right direction and we hope will become universal. Mary Pickford Douglas Fairbanks, Charlie Chaplin, Farnum, Hart, and several others of the national favorites, can always be depended on to furnish a wholesome entertainment which amuses, relaxes, and leaves the spectator with a healthy taste in his mouth and a pleasant memory.

The Movies will undoubtedly adjust themselves, if let alone, as we predicted in our recent editorial.

Banquet Last Night.

The Columbia Engine and Motor Company, No. 4 celebrated its fiftieth anniversary last night, with a most gustable banquet, a flow of oratory, and a sumptuous program of music. The fair ladies who served the viands added their charm and beauty to the occasion. More than 200 were present among them being four of the original charter members. This silver-haired quartette were enthusiastically cheered as they arose in response to Toastmaster Roberts' glowing enlogy.

Only Alexandria could celebrate an occasion of this kind, and her recurring anniversaries should be invariably remembered and commemorated as was the occasion last night. The Gazette congratulates Columbia Engine and Motor Company, No. 4, and wishes it many happy returns.

BRIAND REJECTS IDEA OF PERMANENT OCCUPATION

London, March 10.—The penalties imposed upon Germany will cease only when a satisfactory solution of the qupestions of reparations, disarmament and war criminals has been accepted by the Allies.

This is the decision of the Supreme Council taken at its meeting last night, at which time also M. Briand declared that the French Government had no intention of permanently occupying territory on the left bank of the Rhine. He said that the only object was to secure execution of the treaty.

The Council agreed to instruct the Allied High Commission of the Rhineland to invite the attendance of Italian representatives when economic questions resulting from the application of the penalties were under consideration.

Besides dealing with sanctions, the Council decided to draft a bill for a 50 per cent toll on the sales of German goods. In this connection it was stated that imports to the Allied countries through neutral countries will be required to have certificates from the respective Chambers of Commerce in the neutral countries or in the countries of transshipment, showing the origin of the goods.

Dusseldorf, Germany, March 10.—Twenty four hours have passed since the Allied troops marched into the new zone of occupation. Not the slightest untoward incident has occurred and General Degoutte, in command of the occupation, has returned to Mayence.

The workers, who might be expected to give trouble, show no signs of dissatisfaction. At Duisburg and Ruhrort, a certain ferment is apparent. The walls are plastered with placards headed with the red flag.

TOOK CHASCO-VIN FOR NERVOUS BREAK-DOWN

Mrs. Luck Keck, in the Cabinet department of the Victor Talking Machine Co., told the other day how she had been troubled with a nervous break-down and a generally run-down system, "Until I took Chasco-Vin, she said, I was wretchedly nervous and felt poorly all the time. I did not sleep well and was in bad shape. I read about Chasco-Vin in one of the papers and now I have taken three bottles with wonderful results. It brought back my appetite and I sleep well and feel fine and have no nervousness at all. Chasco-Vin is a wonderful medicine which I will always praise."

There is only one Chasco-Vin agency in Alexandria, Edgar Warfield, jr., corner King and Pitt Sts.

The soldiers had occasionally to disperse merely a passing show of ill-perse sullen featured groups, but it humor, for the factories are working full blast, while other sections of the population appear to feel relief.

SAYS COURT CHAIRS NEED OILING.

Editor, The Gazette:

How do members of a jury, the court, and court attaches transact the business before the circuit and corporation courts of this city while every movement of every person occupying the swivel chairs in the court-room results in a screech that would drive a person whose nerves on a ledge to seek relief in the Potomac River? Is the sale of oil in Alexandria effected by the Volstead law?

man is like the typical soldier. Continuing he said: "I have no doubt but that if accurate data were obtained that twenty per cent of the Columbia men on the other side conducted themselves there as here and better soldiers were there than the twenty odd young men who went across the ocean and served the colors. Yours is a very proud record not only here but abroad. In the years to come when you have another anniversary you will be calling the roll of men who went promptly to the colors when their country called them. In the years to come when people get together on similar occasions as this you will be adding to this the name of that man for whom a gold star is on the flag.

Representative Moore said that real and substantial progress has been made by the city. He raised the fire department and spoke of its organization. The speaker said he was thrilled last summer when he saw the Alexandria Fire Department and its members marching along with the various other companies of the state in the annual state firemens conven-tion on parade. The other memorable thing to him that he attended here he said was the unveiling of the Confederate Monument at Washington and Prince streets many years ago.

Capt. George H. Evans, business manager of the chamber of commerce, made a short address in which he recalled the old days of the Columbia Company telling a number of reminiscences regarding the rivalry batwen boys over the Columbia and the old Hydraulian Companies. Nothing in the olden days he said gave him a greater thrill than the old horse drawn apparatus.

H. R. Burke, president of common council, told of memories of the old days of the Columbia recalling the late E. S. Leadbeater, the late Henry Posey and Loudoun Campbell, all of whom he said always took a pride in the fire department. On behalf of the city council Mr. Burke said that city council had the highest regard for the firemen and wish to further the interests of the fire department wherever it can.

Councilman Claude W. Fletcher, vice president of the Reliance Company, felicitated the Columbia Company on their fiftieth anniversary and thanked the officers and president for the honor of being present.

University of Virginia Makes Public a Roll of Fame

Charlottesville, Va., March 10.—The University of Virginia Centennial Endowment Fund yesterday made public a "partial roster of eminent sons" who have passed through its halls since 1918 when the institution was founded by Thomas Jefferson.

A summary states that of its 22,600 alumni, more than half have given their lives to some form of public service. It also states that the University has never conferred an honorary degree.

Though Madison and Monroe were intimately connected with the early days of the institution, Woodrow Wilson is the lone President of the United States upon the list. Six cabinet officers of the United States and six of the Confederate States are mentioned, including James C. McReynolds.

Among the nine ambassadors and ministers to foreign countries are given the names of Thomas Nelson Page, ambassador to Italy; Joseph E. Willard, ambassador to Spain, and Hampson Gary, minister to Switzerland. Two Justices of the United States Supreme Court, thirteen judges of U. S. Circuit and District Courts and 100 Judges of State Supreme and Appelate Courts are given.

Thirty-four U. of Va., alumni, including Oscar W. Underwood, of Alabama, Thomas S. Martin, of Virginia, and John Sharp Williams, of Mississippi, have served in the United States Senate; while 128 alumni, including Joseph W. aBiley, of Texas, Henry D. Flood, of Virginia, and Swagar Sherley, of Kentucky, have served in the House of Representatives. A list of twenty-three governors of states mentions Westmoreland Davis, the present governor of Virginia, as well as four other chief executive of the same state.

Dr. Walter Reed, enemy of yellow fever; Lucien L. Kinsolving, Bishop of South Brazil; Edgar Allan Poe, poet; Dr. Philip A. Bruce, historian; Samuel Spencer, railway president; Surgeon Generals Rupert Blue and Hugh S. Cumming are a few of the eminent sons to whom reference is made in the lists of various callings and professions.

BAD BREATH

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Get at the Cause and Remove It

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, act gently on the bowels and positively do the work. People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through taking them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. They act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood, and purifying the entire system. They do that which calomel does, without any of the bad after effects. Take one or two every night for a week and note the pleasing effect. 15c and 30c a box.

SAYS HIS PRESCRIPTION HAS POWERFUL INFLUENCE OVER RHEUMATISM

Mr. James H. Allen suffered for years with rheumatism. Many times this terrible disease left him helpless and unable to work.

He finally decided, after years of ceaseless study, that no one can be free from rheumatism until the accumulated impurities, commonly called uric acid deposits, were dissolved in the joints and muscles and expelled from the body.

With this idea in mind he consulted physicians, made experiments and finally compounded a prescription that quickly and completely banished every sign and symptom of rhematism from his system.

He freely gave his discovery to others who took it, with what might be called marvelous success. After years of urging he decided to let sufferers everywhere know about his discovery through the newspapers.—A has been appointed agent for Allenrhu in this vicinity with the understanding that he will freely return the purchase money on the first two bottles they who state they received no benefits. Sold by all druggist.

Ship Nearly Wades Into Cottages in Maine

Kennebunkport, Me., March 10.—The British freighter Wandby, twenty-four days out from Algiers, struck the ledges off this port in a fog yesterday while heading for Portland. She ran in so close that caretakers of cottages on the shore said they thought she was coming through their kitchens. At low tide the Wandby's crew could almost walk ashore.

The steamer was regarded as probably a total wreck, but her crew stood by. Captain Simpson, of the Wandby, wigwagged that the steamer was light and that he had not sighted land since leaving Algiers.

WILL CELEBRATE BIRTH OF FREDERICKSBURG

Fredericksburg, Va., March 10.—Joint committees from the Chamber and the A. P.V. A. have been appointed to arrange for a fitting celebration of the 250 anniversary of the founding of Fredericksburg, on May 2. In order to get tentative plans in shape, a working subcommittee was appointed to go into the details fully, as follows: Miss Anna Braxton, chairman; Mrs. V. M. Fleming, Mrs. R. Lee Steffregen, Frank C. Baldwin, Maj. J. N. Barney

Chief interest will center in the placing of small monuments marking the original boundaries of Fredericksburg, which was a royal grant from the King of England.

Safety Devices Probable at Scene of Porter Wreck

Valparaiso, Ind., March 10.—Installation of automatic train-stopping devices at the Porter, Ind., crossing of the New York Central and Michigan Central railroads, where thirty-seven persons lost their lives in a collision ten days ago, may be ordered by State and Federal authorities as a safeguard for the future.

It was learned today that members of the Public Service Commission plan to attend the convention in Chicago soon of railway appliance manufacturers with the view to obtaining information regarding new automatic stopping devices such as are not now in use on any railroad.

2 Minnesota Towns Pick Women Mayors

St. Paul, Minn., March 10.—Two women were chosen Mayors in the village and town election in Minnesota yesterday, returns today showed, and several others were elected to minor political offices.

Mrs. D. C. Pierce was elected Mayor of Goodhue and Mrs. Mary Strin, was chosen to similar office in Winton where Mrs. Wilhelmina Hill was named city clerk.

Congressional Paper Is Record For Brevity

Washington, March 10.—The Congressional Record outdid itself for brevity yesterday. It consisted of one page, printed on both sides, and devoted mainly to editorials and letters inserted by Senators during yesterday's ten-minute session. There was no "leave to extend" remarks supplement or any other reminder of the usual weighty tone covering a day's deliberations. The issue was said to be probably the smallest ever published.

Stomach Pain, Sourness, Gases, and Acidity ended with "Pape's Diapepsin"

Out-of-order stomachs feel fine at once! When meals don't fit and you belch gas, acids and undigested food. When you feel indigestion pain, lumps of distress in stomach, heartburn or headache. Here is instant relief.

Just as soon as you eat a tablet or two of Pape's Diapepsin all the dyspepsia, indigestion and stomach distress caused by acidity will end. These pleasant, harmless tablets of Pape's Diapepsin always put sick, upset, acid stomachs in order at once and they cost so little at drug stores.

Ford

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

ANNOUNCEMENT!

Mr. Edsel B. Ford, President of the Ford Motor Company, gives out the following statement:

"The price of the FORDSON Tractor has been reduced from $790.00 to $625.00, effective immediately.

"This price change has been made possible through lower costs of materials and the fact that we are now located in our new Tractor Plant with greatly increased economic manufacturing facilities in immediate connection with our foundry and machine shops and large blast furnaces where iron is poured directly from the ore, giving us maximum efficiency with the power to reduce cost of production, and down comes the price in line with our policy to market our products at the lowest possible figure without in any way affecting our high standard of quality.

"We are particularly pleased in being able to bring about this big reduction in price at this time because the farmer needs all the help we can give him and this big cut in price will be the means of placing a valuable power unit within the reach of practically every one of them, not to mention industrial and commercial concerns which likewise have benefitted through its use and are already realizing, to a much greater extent, its value as a power and hauling unit. But particularly has the FORDSON Tractor proved a most valuable factor in the saving of farm labor, at the same time increasing the per acre crop yield as well as making possible a utilization of previously uncultivated land, to say nothing of removing no end of drudgery.

"There is no question that the use of machine power on the farm is the greatest advancement made in the development of agriculture, not only in money saving and money making results, as well as raising the standards of living on the farm to a much higher level, but because of its proved value in making every type of land more productive, and consequently our desire to place the FORDSON within the reach of all.

"THERE IS NO CHANGE IN THE PRESENT FORD CAR AND TRUCK PRICES, which are already at the lowest possible figure and now with cock bottom reached on the tractor price a further reduction in price of either the car, truck or tractor is out of the question; in fact, the big price cuts have been made in anticipation of continuous maximum production and increases may be necessary before long if a large volume of new business is not obtained. Therefore, present prices of Ford products cannot be guaranteed against possible increases."

Ask for the book "The Fordson at Work," which will be supplied free of cost. Let us demonstrate the value of the Fordson on your farm, in your factory, lumber yard, coal yard, or in any general hauling or power work you have to do and let us have your order for a Fordson.

Beer As Medicine Now Permitted

Beer, not the half-of-one-per cent stuff, but the old fashioned kind containing from three to five per cent of alcohol, will be brewed again under a ruling made by the Department of Justice Tuesday.

The beer will be only for the sick, however, and dispensed strictly under doctor's prescription. Officials in the office of the Prohibition Commissioner said they have not yet been officially notified to the ruling, but as the Treasure Department relies upon the Attorney General for legal advice, the order will undoubtedly be made effective.

Prohibition Commissioner Kramer is known to be opposed to permitting the manufacture and sale of wine and beer for medicinal purposes, but it is not expected that he will make any protest. The Internal Revenue Bureau will at once amend the regulations now in force to permit the brewing of beer.

The ruling was prepared before Attorney General Palmer went out of office, and bears his signature.

Labor Envoy May Lose $50 a Day, U. S. Says

Washington, March 10.—Secretary Davis, of the Labor Department, is sarcastically gazing one Roland D. Mahany. Last February Mr. Mahany was appointed to represent labor at an International Conference in Geneva next August. His pay was fixed at $50 a day and he was awarded a secretary at $12 a day. Mahany and secretary also get the usual $4 per diem allowance and traveling expenses. With time added for preparing a report it would not have been impossible for him to serve the government a year and collect much more than $18,000.

Secretary Davis, discovering the Mahany item, made inquiries.

"By the Lord, Harry," exclaimed Senator New, of Indiana, "he gets two and a half times as much as a United States Senator gets. Lets locate this fortunate person."

It was found Mahany had been in Europe "scouting" and is now on his way back to America to rest before returning to Europe on U. S. pay. There is more than a suspicion that when Mr. Mahany arrives here he will be without a job.

THREE RHINE PORTS UNDER ALLIED CONTROL

Dusseldorf, Germany, March 10.—Armed forces of France, Belgium and Great Britain marched yesterday into the three principal cities of the Ruhr basin Dusseldorf, Duisburg and Ruhrort.

There was no disturbance no sign of hostile intent upon the part of the inhabitants and last night found the three Rhine coal ports completely under Allied control.

The advance into Dusseldorf began shortly after daybreak, when Belgian troops entered the city by way of the bridge over the Rhine.

By 7 o'clock the Belgians had occupied the Rathaus, the Telephone Exchange and all important street intersections. They also had mounted machine guns at points commanding all streets leading out of the business section of the city.

Belgian and French troops scheduled to occupy Duisburg and Ruhrort marched from Obercassel shortly after 7 o'clock yesterday morning, and the first platoons reached those cities a few minutes before noon.

The Allied occupation was snappy and business as usual. There was no interruption of business. Small groups of idlers gathered in the street to stare, but the majority of the population went about its affairs quietly.

The behavior of the troops was above reproach, and the civilians maintained an attitude of stolid indifference. There was nothing inspiring nor sensational about the occupation—no music nor parades. The soldiers kept their distance from the population. It was all in the days' work for them.

Dusseldorf has been divided into three zones with the Belgians in the section along the river, the French in the center of the city and the English near the railway station in the industrial district.

The French high command expressed high satisfaction last night over the conduct of the troops and the behavior of the civilian population. Up to a late hour last night no disturbances of any kind had been reported.

All places of amusements, cabaret and public gathering places have been closed until the occupation more fully organized.

SPORTS

Alexandria High School is making more than one record under the tutelage of Coach J. P. Hayden. The Alexandria lads are coming to town tomorrow with their basketball team to take part in the George Washington University tournament at the coliseum.

With the Virginians is a youngster named Pohl—Jack Pohl to be precise about it. He is the fifth Pohl who has represented Alexandria High School in athletics, and he comes of a family that has helped the Alexandria High School to make athletic and other history. In other words the Pohls have helped, are helping and will help Alexandria High.

Several years ago a youngster named Herman Pohl graduated from Alexandria High School. He had played footooll and baseball. He went to West Point and after due time all of the newspapers in the country printed his picture because he led the West Point cadets in the graduating class, standing number one in his class.

Then Gus and Leo Pohl came along and made fine records in school and sports for the Alexandrians. They went into the navy and then to the University of Virginia. Everett Pohl, the fourth Alexandrian, performed for the high school and went to the University of Virginia where he is now on the wrestling team.

Jack Pohl is manfully upholding the Pohl record for Alexandria High. He is playing guard on the basketball team. Coach Hayden thinks he will develop into just as good an athlete as his brothers.

"That isn't all by any means," says Coach Hayden, "I've got another Pohl, named Marion Pohl, who has just entered the high school this year and I expect he will be ready to take the place of this one. That will make six Pohl boys from the high school.

"And I'm looking forward to one more Pohl boy who is in the graded school yet," says Hayden. "That'll make seven Pohls in all, brothers too, will go through the high school in Alexandria."—Washington Times.

Washington Central Y. M. C. A. from Washington went down in defeat by a score of 60 to 16 when they played the Dreadnaughts in Armory Hall last night.

Tomorrow night the Bliss Electrical School girls Alexandria for another try at the Dreadnaughts and a heated contest is promised. Last week they played the "D" girls to a tie and in order to determine the superior team they have demanded a repeat game with no restrictions in line up so we expect the best amateurs of Washington down.

In a well played and closely contested game of basket ball the Lee School team came out victorious over the reserve team of the Friends Select School of Washington on the High School floor yesterday. The first half ended 5 to 3 in Lee School's favor and it was not until the final period that the little Prince street girls took a decided lead on their opponents, the game ending with Lee School 13, Friends 6.

The general team work of both teams was very commendable, the Alexandrian's, however showing a better system and playing with much greater ease. The playing of Mary Finks and Louise Jones at center, Thelma Wade at guard and Marion Chilcott at forward was especially good. A return game will be played in Washington at a later date.

Inauguration Cost Less Than $1,500 To Government

Hardly a dent was made in the $50,000 appropriated by Congress for the inauguration of Warren G. Harding as the twenty-ninth President of the United States.

Elliott Woods, superintendent of the Capitol, announced yesterday that expenditures would be less than $1,500.

"For simplicity it had Thomas Jefferson outdone," said Woods. "Of course the stand cost much more than $1,500, but that was built by the telephone company which installed the amplifier system by which the speaker's voices were enlarged so that they could be heard throughout the vast crowd. The government was at no expense except the putting up of guard rails, comfort stations, and such, and the printing of tickets the pass of which prevented a crush of people in the Capitol."

The stand has been taken down.

RICHMOND FRIDAY and SATURDAY

The Convincing Argument-----

When you stop to consider WHY you eat BREAD you will come to realize the importance in choosing the Bread you buy discriminatingly.

You want nourishment---so you want the Bread that best supplies it.

You want purity---so you must select the Bread that is sure to be pure.

That's why we put so much stress on the care with which every ingredient entering into CORBY BREAD is selected.

It is a scientific judgment that decides and ONLY THE PUREST is considered.

The unusual quantities of rich milk that enter into the CORBY formulas add their measure of nutrition; while the patented process of mixing the doughs develops every particle of the gluten content of the flour. Therefore CORBY BREAD MUST be of 100 per cent Purity----- and Maximum Food Value.

CORBY BREAD is made right here in Alexandria, and delivered fresh from the ovens to your grocer or delicatessen.

Pure as Mother Made It.
